COUNTRY NEWS.

Gloucestershire in Monmouthshire, Jan. 27.

HIS Day the Reverend Mr. John Day, jun. Minister of this Parish, gave to each poor Person Half a Bushel of fine Wheat, and one Shilling.—An Example worthy of Imitation.

Gloucester, Feb. 2. The Subscription for the Support of poor Families in this City, was completed this Week, and upwards of 60l. was subscribed, viz. The Right Rev. the Lord Bishop, five Guineas; the Hon. Benjamin Bathurst, Esq; one of our worthy Representatives, ten Guineas; the Hon. John Selwyn, Esq; our other Representative, five Guineas, besides his late Benefaction of 100l. the Corporation, five Guineas; and the Remainder, by the Gentlemen and Citizens; to be continued weekly, during the present rigorous Season.

Gloucester, Feb. 2. Tuesday Night about 9 o' Clock, a Fire broke out in the Shop of Mr. Kerton, next Door to Mr. Walker's, the Cook in Wine-street; but by the timely Assistance of the Fire-men and St. Peter's Engine, its Fury was stopp'd. The Houses on each Side are very old; and had there been any Wind, it would have prov'd a most shocking Scene. Mr. Walker and Mr. Collins are considerable Sufferers, some People who assisted in carrying away their Goods, having been so ungenerous as not to return them.

Saturday last the Persons who collect for the poor, brought without Lawford's Gate, made a fourth Distribution in Beef to upwards of 260 distressed Families; and this Day two Oxen and a Half, 400 Quarter-Loaves, and 12 Waggon Load of Coal (ten of which were generously given by Norborne Berkeley, Esq; and the other two by Charles Bragg, Esq;) will be distributed to 400 distressed Families without the said Gate. 'Tis computed, that the Out Parish contains at least 700 distressed Families, many of whom, in all Probability, would have perish'd, had they not been timely reliev'd by the several Collections.

This Week another poor Woman died in a Glasse.

Salisbury, Feb. 2. Last Week died at Winterflow in this County in the 53d Year of his Age, after a lingering Illness, Alexander Thistlethwayte, Esq; He was left three Sons, and died possessor of a plentiful Estate, which devolves to his eldest Son A. Thistlethwayte, Esq.

LONDON.

They write from the Hague, that upon a Report that a secret Negotiation was carrying on between France and Denmark, Count Hyner the Danish Minister at Stockholm, declar'd that the same was groundless, and that it might be depended on, that the King his Master would enter into no Engagement contrary to those which he had lately contracted with Great Britain.

'Tis said in the Letters from Vienna, that one of the 5000l. Prizes in our last Lottery, fell to the General de Bourck, the Prussian Minister at that Court.

By a Mail Yesterday from France we are told, that the Corps of the late Duke of Bourbon, after lying in State for a Fortnight at the Palace of Conde, was remov'd to Enghien on the 31st ult. there to be interr'd in the Vault of his Ancestors. The 3 great Officers of his Household are kept up still, but there's like to be a great Reform not only among the other Officers and Domesticks, but a Saving of many Expences that are at present needless. Of 600 Horses that he kept in his Stables, there are only 50 reserv'd; and his fine Menagery, which is the noblest and the best furnish'd with rare outlandish Animals, so that King Lewis XIV's was never better stock'd, is to be remov'd to the present King's Menagery at Versailles. As the Regiment of Dragons that he had was added to those of Horse and Foot while he was in the Administration, for which Regiment he paid 40000 Crowns, 'tis not yet known whether the Duke his Son is to have it, or whether it is to go by the Name of the Marquis d'Argens (the Celebrated Author of the Lettres Juives) who is Honorary Colonel of it.

All the Officers and Magistrates of Cardinal Albani's Promotion at San Marino, have been oblig'd to resign their Patents to the Commissary sent thither by the Pope, who is resolv'd that ancient tho' little Republick shall continue free and independent.

Extract of a Letter from Capt. Bunkell of Queensferry, dated the 5th instant at Sebastian's.

This acquaints you, that at last Orders are come from the King of Spain to restore me my Ship and Cargo, on my proving I was taken in the French Dominions. This I have made out by 3 Declarations; besides that of my Pilot (who had been Six Hours on board of me before I was taken) who has sent his Declaration from Bourdeaux. The Spanish Lawyers alledged, that the Entry to the River of Bourdeaux is not in the King of France's Dominions, &c. But the French Lawyer, who does for me and 2 other Shipmasters, has silenced the Dons, by proving from a Map of the River, that we were taken a great way up the River; and as for our Ship, she was taken 3 Leagues up above the Castle of Cordovan. The precise Places where we were taken are pointed out in the Map, one Copy whereof we have sent to the Court of Spain. The French Lawyer, who came from Bourdeaux to serve us, assures me I shall be soon cleared; but how to behave next is the Question. All my Crew, except my Brother and Brother-in-law, have left me to avoid being thrown in Prison. If I should procure Hands to navigate my Ship to Bourdeaux, there is still a Risque; for there are 6 Privateers out from this Port, and 2 Rog-boats from Port Passage, who ply 'twixt this and Bourdeaux, and have taken another Ship from Ireland with Beef, &c. Your's, &c.

JA. BUNKELL.

We hear from Edinburgh, that on the 8th of January last died in the Island of Lewes, whither he retired 7 or 8 Months ago, William late Marquis of Seafort.

We hear from Stonehaven in Scotland, that last Week there happen'd one of the most prodigious Falls of Snow that ever was known in that Country; the Houses in the little Villages were so choak'd up, that they were oblig'd to dig a Passage from the Doors to the Surface of the Snow with vast Labour and Pains.

And from Glasgow, that the Storm has been particularly severe in that City, the Poor having suffered by its bad Effects, in a very extraordinary Manner: The high Prices of Provision, made it a Matter of the greatest Difficulty for many Families to subsist, however the Hon. Magistrates used the utmost Care, and have effectually remedied some gross Abuses, that had been introduced by the Dealers in Coals and Meal, having set a Price on both, which they could not exceed, and besides bought up large Quantities, which were sold by Retail, at a very easy Rate.

They write from Shropshire, that at a Farm at Stanwardine, within 6 Miles of Shrewsbury, large and middle siz'd Oaks were split from the Root, betwixt 8 and 10 Foot high, to the Heart, the Open of them all was towards the North, thought to be 150l. Damage, many of them betwixt 4 and 5 Foot about.

On Friday Se'nnight Matthew Martin of Wittenhoe, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for Colchester, ordered an Ox to be killed and divided among the Poor of that Parish, with a large Quantity of Coals.

Nicholas Corbellus, Esq; of the same Place, also ordered an Ox to be kill'd and divided among the necessitous Families in the said Parish, at this severe Season.

The Week before last twenty Pounds was collected in the Parish of Chelmsford and Hamlet of Moulsham, and impartially distributed among the poor Housekeepers there.

Last Week a large Sheep, belonging to Mr. Stephen Jay, a Butcher at Chelmsford, was roasted whole on the River there; which uncommon Sight, occasioned several hundred People to resort thither, and prodigious Quantities of Wine, Beer, &c. was sold on the Ice.

At Brainree Fifteen Pounds was collected and given to the Poor.

Ten Pounds was collected in Bocken, and divided among the Poor there.

Twelve Pounds was collected in the Parish of Dunmore, and divided among the necessitous Families there.

Collections have likewise been made at Witham and Kelvedon for the same laudable Purpose.

At Sherborn in Dorsetshire 250l. has been rais'd and distributed amongst the poor Inhabitants, exclusive of general Rates and private Benefactions, which they have Reason to believe have been very extensive, as well on account of the Christmas Season, as the Severity of the Weather.

We hear from Lynn in Norfolk, that a few Days since, the Mayor and Aldermen distributed 20 Chaldron of Coals amongst the Poor, and gave Orders for a hot Dinner to be given twice a Week at the Work-house to as many Poor as would go for it.

Yesterday the Lady of his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury lay dangerously ill at his Palace at Lambeth, being attended by several Physicians.

We hear, that George Witchcor, Esq; will be unanimously chosen Knight of the Shire for the County of Lincoln, in the Room of the present Earl of Scarborough.

We hear that Six Regiments of Foot are order'd to be rais'd.

A Squadron of fifteen Ships of the Line are order'd to sail with the utmost Expedition for the West-Indies.

We hear that Three Regiments are to be sent to the Leeward Islands from Gibraltar, and to be replaced by Three Regiments from Great Britain.

On Tuesday last John Rhodier was committed to

Newgate

Newspaper by Col. De Veil, for stealing out of the Shop of Mr. Henry Bolney, an eminent Peruke-maker, in the Piazza Covent-Garden, a great Number of Perukes to a considerable Value. As was Yesterday the noted Pin-cushion Woman (Mary Walton) for putting Francis Lush, a Lad of Ten Years old, upon robbing his Master, Mr. Bruce, of 118 l. and then taking it all from him, knowing it to be stole.

An immediate and never-failing CURE for Deafness, Thickens of Hearing, Noise or Pain in the Ears, &c.

BY a noble Chymical Preparation, the most excellent Medicine for this Purpose that ever was known, far exceeding all things ever yet published, or made Use of; its Virtues are beyond Expression, and cannot be truly known but by Experience: Words come short of its just Praise.

It is a certain, and, as it were, an instant Cure for Deafness, Thickens of Hearing, Noise or Pain in the Ears, from what Cause soever, or of ever so long standing, having cured vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and all Ages, that have been in a manner totally deaf, after all other Means and Medicines external and internal, by Advice, and also by Publication, have failed, with the greatest Ease and Safety, and to their utmost Satisfaction and Wonder; for,

In a peculiar Manner it strengthens, softens, and looses the Drum of the Ear, which by being cried, or shrivell'd, is often the first, and chief Cause of every Complaint of want of Hearing, or of Noise, or Pain in the Ears, &c. To remedy all which, this noble Medicine is a true Specifick, that never fails perfectly to cure all possibly curable Cases, after all other Means and Medicine have utterly failed; which is more than can be said of any other Thing in the whole World besides itself: Any Cold in the Head, or any Hurt by congealed Matter in the Ears, it instantly cures.

It is sold for 3 s. 6 d. each Bottle, by the Author's special Appointment, at Mr. Richards's Tinsnop, the Sign of the Black Horse and Star, in Fleet-street, near Fleet-Market, and no where else in England.
